WHERE DO MY MATERIALS GO?

Earthhub values transparency regarding your materials. Currently, egg cartons are donated to local food banks and farmers for reuse, milk bags are given to community groups that weave mats for those experiencing homelessness, crayons and tubes are sent to an Ottawa who melts them into 'push-up' crayons, electronics are recycled through Greentec, and multi-layer plastics are processed by HydroBlox. We are actively working to establish additional partnerships with reputable recycling companies that specialize in hard-to-recycle materials. Once these partnerships are finalized, we will always share where your materials are going, whether through reuse or proper recycling.
